Jovanovich Symposium

Well-known scholars, journalists, and public figures addressed major political, philosophical, and social issues in the Colorado College William Jovanovich symposium, "September 11 — One Year Later: Responding to Global Challenges," September 12-14. More than 2,200 people heard the first keynote speech by Hanan Ashrawi, founder and secretary general of the Palestinian Initiative for the Promotion of Global Dialogue and Democracy. Dr. Daniel Pipes, director of the Middle East Forum, addressed terrorism and the Middle East after Ashrawis lecture as part of protest activities on Armstrong Quad. Gideon Doron, professor of political science at the University of Tel Aviv, gave the second keynote address to a crowd of about 1,100.

Amid rumors of the symposium being a memorial for the events of 9/11, what ₹ began as a discussion of global changes since September 2001 quickly escalated into a protest with the CC and Colorado Springs commnuties along with national a advocates taking either side.

Benjamin Hamilton Hoyler died early Sunday morning on October sixth, electrocuted while exploring the tunnels below Colorado College-he was not yet twenty. Even still, this friend of ours had seen things many of us never will. Ben loved life and spent his days learning and experiencing so his tomorrow would always be just a little bit more exciting.

A life is like a fractured mirror; countless panes reflecting something different though when seen whole captures just a single image. Ben seemed so simple to all who knew him, and yet his life looked like countless things to countless people. He was a Hamilton and proud of his Scottish ancestry. He'd been to Scot land twice with Outward Bound, owned a kilt, and most memorably played the bagpipes as often as he could. Music was integral to his life, and hiphop was beginning to have a big effect in his days. Ben kept journals and filled the pages one-after-another with beautiful graffiti art; a wall in his room still shows a very large and colorful piece in which Ben had painted the Gaelic spelling of his name, "Beain." His artwork allowed him very free expression of his imagi nation and he virtually dumped himself into his drawings. Ben also biked across the country, a 3,915 mile trip, in the fall before he began as a Winter Start at CC. On his trip Hoyler began to love this country deeply despite all of the demons that haunt America's past. He thought intensely about his life in the countless hours of riding, and as he zoomed 60 miles a day down the open road he experiences his deep love for and desire to fly. Ben head remarked several times that he wanted to start a hand-gliding club at CC, and sometime this year he had hoped to skydive in Canyon City for the first of many times. "I can't hold back the excitement I feel towards flying, freely, fast..." Beain surprised us all as he flew away before any of us imagined he would. His life was a quest for God through self, and the person we miss touched all of us in very powerful and positive ways. Hoyler would have been shocked to see the impression that he left with us who saw him gracefully and winglessly defy pessimism and boredom.

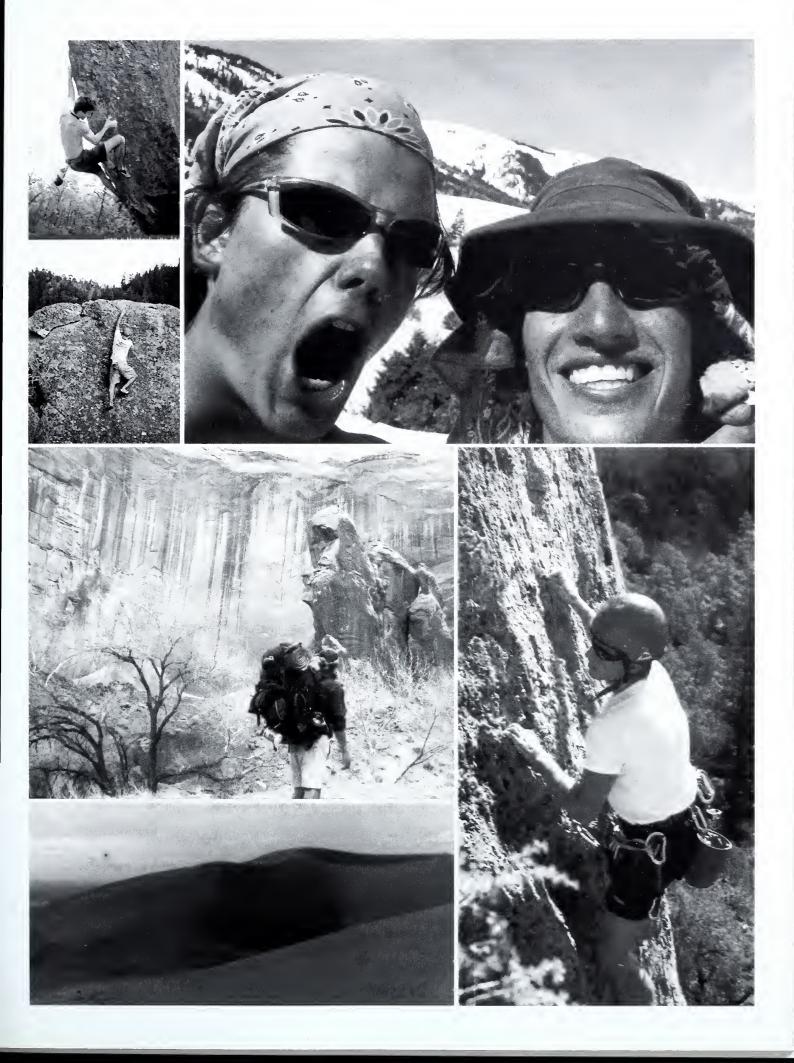

Ben is survived by his father Marshall, mother Katherine, and three younger sisters Margot, Georgia, and Elizabeth.

To Our Dear Elizabeth,

CONGRATULATIONS! Wow-how time has flown, it seems like only yesterday that we watched you get on that big yellow bus for your first day of kindergarten. Now you are graduating from college-and we couldn't be more proud of you! As the next chapter in your life unfolds we we wish you only peace and happiness, wonderful friendships and adventures, and worlds of love and laughter!

With all our love, Mom and Dad

Beth,
Congratulations-Good Luck-Have Fun!
Love ya,
Brian

Congratulations to the girls of 222!!!

WITH LOVE,
JUDY AND WALT GROSSMAN

Dear Scott,
Congratulations on four incredible years of academic and personal achievements.
Love,
Mom, Dad Ali,
Gradma and Grandpa

WE ARE SO PROUD OF YOU, CATHERINE!

CONGRATULATIONS & BEST WISHES FOR YOUR FUTURE.

LOVE, MOM, DAD AND AUSTIN

Dear Lindsey,

We're not sure you realize how difficult it is for us to adjust to the fact that our precious daughter is not a little girl anymore. It was so hard for us to learn to let go, and we are sure there were times you thought we never would. Through it all we have developed a very special bond. we are constantly delighted at the warm, intelligent and interesting person you are. And, best of all, not only do we love you with all our hearts, we really like the woman you have become.

Congratulations on your graduation,

Love, Mom, Dad and Meredith

It wasn't until you were four years old, that we realized your fascination with parasites. We are sure you would have discovered parasites sooner if you wouldn't have spent your entire third year of life studying plants.

The world is a better place with you in it Nirvana! Enjoy your Ph.D. program.

So much love,

Dad and Mum

Dear Katie and Lydia,

The Jackson spirit lives on! Your energy, determination and spark are your greatest assets. Go get 'em! We love you.

Susie, Rick & Allison and Nancy, Guy & Pat

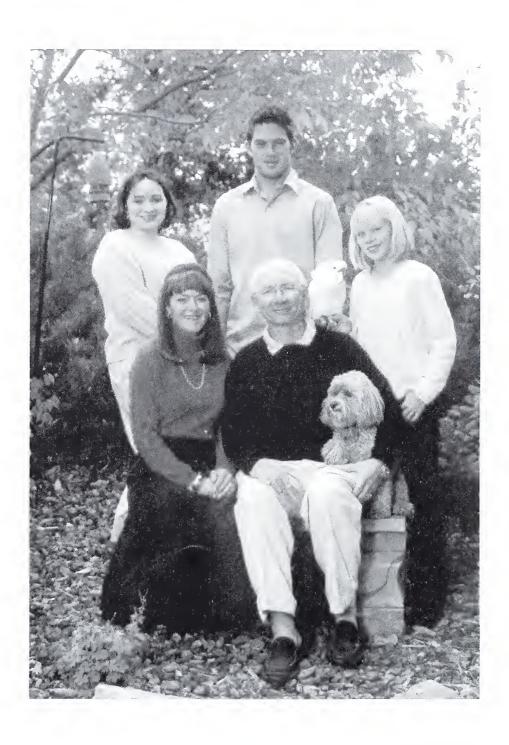

Andrea,

It has been over twenty years since you first decided to go off on your own. You didn't make it very far that first time. With all the wonderful experiences and remarkable accomplishments you've had since then, we know it will be different this time.

We are very proud of you and love you very much,

Mom, Dad and Sonya

Craig,

There was always something special about you. The average and ordinary were never enough. You had to climb a little farther, reach a little higher. While some dreamed dreams, wishing they would come true, you worked hard making your dreams a reality. While others hoped, you tried, and most often succeeded. We are so very proud of all you have accomplished, of all you have become. CONGRATULATIONS!!!

Love, Mom, Dad, Kelsey, Lacey

CONGRATULATIONS!

We are so proud of you. May God continue to bless you with the ability to "climb" in everything you do.

SOMEBODY HAS TO

Somebody has to go polish the stars,
They're looking a a little bit dull.
Somebody has to go polish the stars,
For the eagles and starlings and gulls
Have all been complaining they're tarnished and worn,

They say they want new ones we cannot afford.

So please get your rags
And your polishing jars,
Somebody has to go polish the stars.

Jennifer,

You have truly developed into the most interesting, charming and beautiful young woman. We arevery proud of you! You have enriched our lives through your sense of humor, your dedication to excellence, and your commitment to your faith and community. Keep wporking hard Jenny; fight for what you know is right and stand up for others who may not be as strong. It's the journey that matters in the end, and you travels are leading you through a wonderful story filled with adventure, success, temporary set-backs and love. Enjoy it.

Mrs. O'Leelee would be proud!!

Congratulations Cara Adams!

A passage in your life is complete. A great personal achievement. Better equipped for life's challenges. You will make a difference and are a bright source of pride in our eyes.

Love, Mom and Dad Simon, my love, I can't believe you're already graduating. Seems just yesterday you were graduating from high school and now to see you come this far and will be furthering your education. God Bless you and wish you the very best of luck. We are all so proud of you.

Love you, Mom, Dad, Rudy, Randy, Aoon, Jorge, Claudia and Renee

Congratulations Lindsay!

From beginning to end your school years have been grand!

All our love, Meg, Andy, Mom, and Dad

I am so proud of you. You have grace and true grit!

Love, Mom

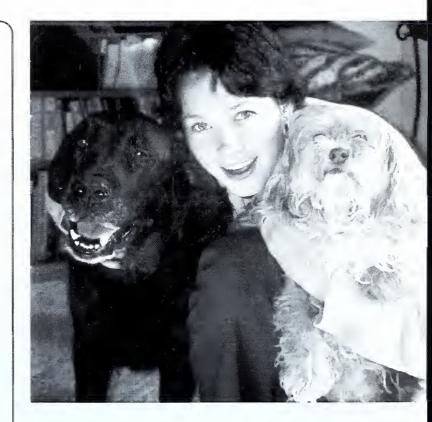

Gaby,

Now you have time to take a nice long drive and rest on your laurels. Take it from one who's been there. This is a really great accomplishment. I wish I'd been as good a CC student as you have.

Love, Steven

Kelsey,

Congratulations in new beginnings, we wish you happiness and love.

Mom, Dad and Zach

Bill,

I have enjoyed watching you grow, develop and participate in your activites more than you will ever know. The ups and downs will all even out for you in the long run. Your education is something no one will ever take from you, so use it to your advantage.

> Love, Dad

#81-Bill.

I am so proud of your perseverance, gentleness, sense of humor, competitiveness, and dedication to self, family friends, and team. Love you always. I am honored to be your Mom.

CONGRATULATIONS MAGGIE

The Very True Story of a Perfectly Different Mouse.

Are you all sitting comfortably? Then I will begin.

Once upon a long time ago, just before Christmas in 1981, a teenyweeny mouse was born.

She was unlike any other mouse that had ever been born before her.

From the very first moment, the news of her uniqueness traveled far and fast. Very important mice came from all over. They would never have believed it if they hadn't seen it for themselves.

What was it? Well, you know how all mice say, "Nobody's perfect." Well, thanks to this little mouse that was no longer true. She was perfect. In every way. Yes, every way.

Her Daddy was so proud. He puffed up his mousey chest and summoned his biggest mousey voice. And yelled out loud to all the crowd, "She's perfect!" He had never, ever been happier. On that, everyone agreed. Everyone cheered.

You may be wondering, "How perfect was she?" To start with, she was the perfect size.

She was so teeny-weeny, her Uncle Rick was able to fit her in one of his paws, without even trying. So that's what he did. And this is what he said, "She's perfect!" Everyone agreed again, and then took lots of perfectly posed pictures of Uncle Rick

Now, a perfect mouse has to have a perfect name. Understanding the difficulty of such a task, her Mummy asked all the mice, "What's the perfect name for her?"

Babe? Buffy? Beryl? Glitter? Fayme? Gertrude? Gus? Hedwig? Hermione? Gigi? Hollowhead? Madonna? Marilyn? Minnie? Molly? Paige? Penelope? Petunia? Scrat?

They were all good names, but not one was perfect.

"I've got it!" shouted Mummy. "We'll call her Kate!"

Everyone went silent and stared at the ground shuffling their dusty paws and feet and checking their tiny watches. It seemed that everyone was thinking that the name Kate might be perfect for another mouse, but not this one. But who had the courage to say so?

Then, out of the blue, the perfect name came to Mummy! "Sophie?" she whispered to the teeny-weeny mouse. The teeny-weeny mouse smiled her first teeny-weeny trademark smile.

That was it! Sophie was the perfect name. All the mice grabbed their own tails in their own mouths and danced around in a circle. Down in the mouse world, that's the highest compliment any mouse can give any other mouse.

Little by little, Sophie grew s-o-o-o-o big! She looked perfect.

Of course, a perfect mouse expects everyone to know perfectly well that she has to have everything exactly the way she wants it.

Like food. So long as Mummy only gave her food that was perfectly white all over and was not touching anything that wasn't white, she would eat it all. Not a problem.

Sleeping had special rules too. If Mummy or Daddy stayed in her room all night sitting by her bed, but not ever lying down, she slept perfectly. What a perfect mouse!

Time passed. Then time passed some more. Sophie knew she was ready for her college education.

After lots of thinking, it was clear there was only one college that was perfect. It was called Colorado College. So she packed up all her tiny little mouse-size CDs and said goodbye to all her mouse friends, (Who now lived in her Mummy's freezer. But that's another story.) and left for CC.

It was a wonderful place. She soon made some perfect friends. There was Rabbit, Adam. Ellie, Caprice and Nicole. They all spent years tirelessly studying the arts. Like the arts of partying, shopping and karaoke. By the end, they were really very good at them all. Possibly, even perfect.

The elders at CC now knew it was time for Sophie and her friends to join the rat race. They decided to throw them a big farewell party. They called it The Graduation. Everyone came.

And everyone saw, that Sophie was now, even more ... you guessed it ... perfect.

Her Mummy and Daddy had never been so happy. Or ever loved her so much. Unless, of course, you count every single day since the teenyweeny mouse was born.

And that's the truth.

Congratulations, Sophie!!!

Mummy and Daddy, Guy and Max, Nanna and Grandpa (USA & Australia), Mark and Dee, Moley and Chyna. Love, love, love, love.

Jed-

Another milestone done with such sucess. You inspire those around you with your knowledge, inquisitiveness, passion, talent and niceness. CC has been a perfect catalyst for many wonderful things to come. We are and have always been very proud of you. Enjoy Jed.

Love you tons, Mom, Dad and Devon
